Farmers Are Best Citizens.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 3.—The relative influences of country and city life upon the production of crime are discussed in a book shortly to be issued by Thomas Speed Mosby of this city, on "Causes and Cures of Crime." Mr. Mosby cites statistics to prove that the majority of criminals in proportion to population, both in this country and in Europe, come from the cities and not from the country districts; and he shows that the "honest farmer" is indeed a reality, and not an imaginary personage who is simply referred to in political campaigns for the purpose of catching the country vote. Mr. Mosby was formerly Pardon Attorney of Missouri, and is the author of the law creating the Missouri State Board of Pardons and Paroles. He believes that the best citizenship of every nation is produced on the farm.

A New Ice Dealer.

J. R. Henderson has bought the Hawkins ice business and is now supplying the ice for the city. There is a strong probability that Mr. Henderson will put in an ice and cold storage plant in this city for next year. Mr. Henderson is an energetic young man and sees that an ice plant is much needed here and with our water works system this will be a splendid opportunity.

Thus one by one new enterprises will be brought to our city by the putting in of a water works system.
